Schools Competition Terms and Conditions

- Entries will be accepted from any school in the UK on behalf of their KS3 students studying Design and Technology.
- By entering the competition, entrants will be deemed to have accepted these Terms and Conditions.
- The organiser is Confederation of Paper Industries Limited (CPI), 1 Rivenhall Road, Swindon SN5 7BD. A company registered in England and Wales. Company Number 3886916.
- Competition entries must fulfil the criteria of one of the four design briefs outlined in the Design and Technology for Cardboard Packaging module of CPI's PaperWorks online schools resource.
- First Prize: A cheque for £500 will be awarded to the school with the winning entry, for use towards equipment for its Design and Technology department. The student or team with the winning entry will be awarded High Street Vouchers to the value of £100 and £150 respectively.
Runner-up Prizes: The two runner-up schools will each receive a cheque for £250 for use towards equipment for their Design and Technology departments. The student or the team of the two runner-up entries will each receive High Street Vouchers to the value of £50 and £100 respectively.
- Entries must be submitted by email to: competition@cpi-paperworks.org.uk with "Corrugated Competition" in the Subject Line. Entries can be sent at any time up until the deadline of Friday 28 April 2017; entries received after this date will not be accepted.
- If a school wishes to submit more than 20 entries, they must contact CPI prior to entering.
- Actual packaging produced must be to the scale in the brief
- Entries must include the following:
 - o Name of the school with full contact details including email address
 - o Name and contact details of the Design and Technology teacher submitting the entries
 - o Name of the student(s) and age(s)
 - o State which design brief has been addressed
 - o Suitable photographs. These should be of the design only to a maximum of 5 images, no pictures of students will be accepted. Images must be of reasonable size between 2mb and 5mb. Accepted file formats *.gif, *.jpg or *.pdf
 - o A description of the design in the student's own words, up to a maximum of 250 words
- An industry judging panel will consider all submissions based on the following criteria:
 - o how effectively the brief has been met in protecting and presenting the product
 - o has the design made best use of space and used the least material necessary
 - o is the logo and other artwork striking and effective
 - o does the design demonstrate originality and creativity
 - o how practical is the design for manufacture and use
- The judging panel will consider all entries and make a shortlist. Shortlisted schools will then be requested to submit actual models by Friday 19 May 2017 for secondary judging.
- Designs will only be returned upon request.
- Winners will be informed by email on Friday 26 May 2017. The judges' decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. Prizes/presentations will be made on a mutually agreed date with the winning schools.
- Copyright on all designs submitted will remain with the individual creators.
- Originality of the students' designs will be taken into account by the judges. The organiser reserves the right to disqualify an entry if it is believed the students' design is not their own original work.
- By submitting the design, the student (and/or their parent or legal guardian) and the school agrees to grant the organiser the right to publish all or any part of the submitted material and photographs for the purposes of promoting the work of the organiser including PaperWorks and Cardboard Packaging.
- The organiser reserves the exclusive right to inform the media of all details and results of the competition, including the names and details of the winning schools and students, and to include these details and results on its website.
- Employees of the organiser and members of their immediate family are not eligible to enter.
- Responsibility cannot be accepted for entries lost, damaged or delayed in transit. Proof of sending is not proof of receipt.
- The prizes are as stated. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, the organiser reserves the right to offer an alternative prize of equal or greater value. No cash alternative will be offered for voucher prizes, nor are the prizes transferable.
- The name and address of the winning schools can be obtained by emailing the organiser at competition@cpi-paperworks.org.uk after Friday 26 May 2017.
- With regards to data protection, the organiser will use personal data for the purposes of administering the competition or setting up any activities associated with this competition.
- The organiser reserves the right in their reasonable discretion to:
 - o add or waive any rules on reasonable notice, and
 - o cancel the promotion or any part of it at any stage due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control.
